SPOTLIGHT CHARTERED MEMBER

MICHAEL CARDUS

Michael Cardus is Materials Manager, Stadler Rail Services UK. He started his career with an apprenticeship in Mechanical Engineering. His second job was Production Manager, where he developed a newfound respect for planning, strategy and building for the future. He spent five years in this role. He then studied for a degree at the University of Liverpool, graduated in 2013 and went to work on the railway, where he has worked as an Engineer and a Materials Manager. He is enjoying the challenges of managing the materials for a 40-year-old fleet and of introducing a new fleet.

DEANNE MARTIN

Deanne Martin is Operations Manager – Key Accounts, BDP International UK Limited. She joined the industry 18 years ago as a trainee Import Clerk at King International Shipping Services. In 2009, she joined BDP International UK Ltd, which had just started a joint venture with another forwarder. In 2012, she was selected to take part in the company's own Leadership Development Programme, which she successfully completed. She has gained vast knowledge of the ocean freight industry and now manages a team that handles both import and export operations for global customers, predominantly in the chemical sector. Her role enables her to build and maintain great relationships with customers all over the globe.

SPOTLIGHT CHARTERED FELLOW

RACHEL HUMPHREY

Rachel Humphrey is President/CEO, Universal Freight Organisation. In 2000, she launched her first company, Universal Freight Organisation. In 2008, she established the online resource Freightbook, in 2010 launched Project Cargo Network, and in 2014 to complete her trio of networks, she founded Cargo Connections. Today, the organisations collectively comprise over 2,000 companies in more than 140 countries. The networks have all been awarded ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 certification and provide value-added benefits, including public relations and marketing, as well as online specialist training. She holds an ILM Level 5 Certificate in Leadership and Management.

SPOTLIGHT CHARTERED MEMBER

WILLIAM PEARSON

William Pearson is Operations Director, First Leeds. After nine years in the army, he entered the bus industry as a driver in 1995. After seven years he was promoted to Supervisor, and has since worked across Yorkshire as Staff Manager, Operations Manager, Area Manager and Business Manager, before moving to his current role and most recently as Head of Operations for First West Yorkshire covering Leeds, Bradford, Halifax and Huddersfield, and which includes the Yellow School Bus Operations. This year and beyond will see the introduction 284 new vehicles into the First Leeds fleet in a £71.5 million.

JELENA VLJAJIC

Jelena Vljajic is Programme Director, Queens University Management School, Belfast. Since 2012, she has taught and supervised Masters dissertation projects and PhD students, and engaged with businesses. From 2007 to 2012, she worked on a project on Robustness of Supply Chains at Wageningen University, the Netherlands, where she obtained a PhD degree. She worked at the Faculty for Transport and Traffic Engineering, Serbia, from 2000 to 2011, where she previously obtained her BSc and MSc degrees in Logistics. She participated in multiple research projects in Serbia, the Netherlands and the UK and authored peer-reviewed articles in international journals and books.

DAVID BROWNE

David Browne is Director, Maersk Line, based at ITS UK headquarters in Liverpool. In his 30-year career at Maersk he has been involved in many methods of shipping, including oil rig supply and ro-ro ferries, but has specialised in containerised transport and supply chain logistics. Originally from Glasgow, he has lived in Cairo and Copenhagen and travelled globally, conducting sales calls and also training for group companies. His current role involves close co-operation with all types of freight users and procurers, together with some specialisation with contracts in fmcg, refrigerated transport and government, defence and aid.
